

Susan Nichol

Before founding Nichol Services, Susan Nichol spent 4 years in corporate marketing and another 10 years as a manager for a prestigious Swiss bank. Over the course of her career, she has acquired a deep understanding and respect for the privacy and individual needs of clients. Susan's unique career profile and personal background have prepared her to offer your family tailored and personalized service based on your needs.

For the past 15 years, Susan has worked directly for seniors and their families or representatives, assisting with administrative services, helping to downsize or empty a home, and offering to act in the role of mandatary and liquidator (executor) for seniors in Quebec.
